

HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJAH OF JODPHUR

“Jodhpur, One World Retreat”, December 5th, 2012

Over 100,000 lives are lost in India alone each year. One out of every 6 brain accident victims die because they do not get the help in the “golden hour” (in the US it is 1 in 200). Wives lose their husbands, children lose their parents, mothers lose their sons, families lose their breadwinners, and every year, it only gets worse! It is time to come together to make a difference.

The first annual event of its kind, The Jodhpur One World Retreat, will see the coming together of the greatest minds and talents to enlighten, energise, celebrate and transform lives. All for the burning cause that needs urgent intervention, “The Scourge of Head Injury” in March, 2013, the Blue City of Jodhpur will metamorphose, as the brightest luminaries from the world of entrepreneurship, philanthropy, art, spirituality and science come together to make a difference.

About His Highness: His Highness Maharajah Gaj Singh, at the age of 4, became head of the Rathore clan and the Maharaja of Jodhpur. The Maharaja’s classical liberal English education from Oxford to Eton combined with the social duties of his heritage has provided Jodhpur with a visionary leader, of the Heritage Hotels, Tourism of Rajasthan and His Highnesses’ Charitable Trust. During intervening years his was Commissioner to Trinidad and Tobago and served at the term in the Upper House of New Delhi.

The cultural bond to his family, Her Royal Highness, Rajmata Krishna Kumari, the Queen Mother; Her Royal Highness the Maharani Hemmati Rajve; The Baiji Lal Sahiba Shivrani Rajve; The Princess and the Yuvraj of Jodhpur, Shivraj Singh, the Crown Prince, lay the foundation for a solid future heritage for Jodhpur.
